

Avin Ahmadi

Oud player, Composer, Vocalist, Improviser

born on a winter day of 2004 in Tehran, Iran, Avin Ahmadi has been living in Vienna since 2021.

In 2015, she was enrolled in Tehran's music conservatory, dedicating six years of high school to study music and improve her skills on the Oud and in music as a whole.

Guided by esteemed masters such as Negar Bouban, Hojat Farajian, and Yasamin Shahhosseini, Avin developed a deep affection for the instrument and made the decision to pursue music academically.

In 2017 she took part in an exceptional Oud master's workshop conducted by Yurdal Tockan in Tehran.

Throughout her studies, Avin had the honor of performing at renowned venues in Tehran, including Vahdat and Roudaki music halls, both as a soloist and as a member of various ensembles and orchestras.

Following her graduation from the conservatory, She made the decision to relocate to Austria in order to further her musical journey. Currently, she studies Jazz improvisation at Anton Bruckner University in Linz.
